

LGBTQ and the Anti-Messiah Agenda An Endtime Prophetic Warning

Halleluyah! Shalom Saints and welcome to our Searching the Scriptures. Something has really been in my spirit for the last few weeks. As of yesterday I felt really compelled to do a study and a teaching on a topic that we are going to be discussing this evening.

It literally has to do with some things that have been taking place in our country in the political arena and in the legal arena. I am so aware of the fact that there are so many families that are being affected by the subject that I am going to be talking about tonight.

Does anybody know what LGTQ stands for? It's the new addition to the acronym to the lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender and queer. That's the new acronym that has been associated with that particular agenda. I think that when I get into the teaching today, you'll begin to see why I think this is so important for us to be looking at it here at House Of Israel.

Today we are going to be talking about LGBTQ and the Anti-Messiah Agenda. I really believe that this is a warning that Father has put in my heart to share with the body of Messiah. Yesterday as my wife was talking with a young lady on the phone, it just confirmed it. I knew at that moment that this was something that I had to present. I need to present it in a way where it is informational and biblical. Hopefully people will see.

We have such a narrow view as Americans. We think that the world revolves around America; when in fact it really doesn't. In many situations we are going to see that America is simply following a bandwagon that has been rolling for some time. What we've recently seen with the Supreme Court and even with the President and other leaders coming and getting on this homosexual/same-sex marriage bandwagon is that it has been going on for decades in other countries. It has finally hit America.

There are those who are prophesying the beginning of the end. They are saying that the day the Supreme Court did what it did; the day that the President declared that he was in favor of same-sex marriage, that it was the end of America as we know it.

The fact is that there are a whole lot of other countries that are way farther down the road than America. They are still standing. That is not to say that there is no truth to what people have been saying. But what I am hoping to do here is to open eyes and to hopefully give us some direction on how we are to deal with what is right now going to be shoved in our faces.

Almost every household in America and the world has been affected by the LGBTQ agenda. Again that LGBTQ is lesbians, gays, bisexuals, transgenders and queers. Now I didn't make this up. You can do a Google search and it's there. Nearly every household now has some member of their immediate family or extended family that is engaged in some form of LGBTQ relationship.

I don't know of a family that is not in some way affected whether it be a brother, a sister, an uncle, an aunt, cousin, niece or nephew, a grandson or granddaughter; even grandmothers and grandfathers. How many of you here know of at least one person who fits this category in your family or in your extended family? Let me see your hands. How many of you know somebody? It may not be in your family.

The President of the United States pushed for same-sex marriage and it was constitutional. Now some people don't like the fact that it's constitutional. The Constitution grants the rights to every individual to pursue life, liberty and happiness. To deny anyone the pursuit of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness is to deny them their constitutional rights.

The reason why it is being passed now has nothing to do with the fact that America has been desensitized to this issue. The emboldening of the community of the LGBTQ – it is so emboldened that they have actually not only come out of the closet, but they have destroyed the closet. They have literally demolished the closet. They are building high-rises where the closets used to be. They are putting their signs outside of the windows and on the balconies. They are patrolling and parading down the streets of Main Street America.

The Pope has all but endorsed same-sex relationships. Civil unions are accepted among many denominations and several mainline denominations even perform same-sex marriages. Many Americans including Christian Americans and Christians worldwide have embraced same-sex marriages and civil unions. Gay Bibles and gender neutral Bibles are already hitting the market.

Young people are experimenting and engaging in bisexuality, homosexuality, and lesbian and transgender identities. Some parents are allowing their little boys and little girls to determine their own gender identity. There is so much confusion in the world today concerning sexuality and gender identity. However, we know that YeHoVaH is not the author of confusion.

Some even believe that by going with the same-sex, one would have a greater understanding of one another's needs. A woman with another woman feels that a woman understands women. Most have been hurt by men, so they don't want to be involved with men. They feel that there would be more compassion among the same sex; and it is the same with men.

However, studies show that same-sex relationships break up. Many same-sex marriages end in divorce; just as regular heterosexual relationships do. When we begin to talk about the resources, all you have to do is "Google."

Simply Google homosexual, lesbian or bisexual divorces. Google will show you.

There are some very prominent individuals out there. Ellen Degeneres and her “wife.” It is interesting that women who marry women call each other their wives. They don’t call each other their husbands. And men who marry men, they call each other their husbands. They don’t call each other wives. In a regular relationship, you have a husband and a wife. In a lesbian relationship you have two wives. In a homosexual relationship you have two husbands.

America and the world laughed its way into cross-dressing through comedians and actors. You see, some time ago when we began to see some of this stuff, we laughed and we laughed hard. We didn’t know what was going on while we were laughing.

Anybody who knows about public speaking understands that when you have to deliver a hard message, one of the first things that you do is that you have to get people to laugh. They tell jokes. They lower the anxieties of people. They open them up.

Through that they can now push this agenda. I don’t think that these individuals when they were playing – well, I don’t know. I can’t say. There have been some things that have been said about Eddie Murphy. There have been some things that have been said about – what’s the guy with Madea? Tyler Perry.

There have been some things that have been said about these guys. I have no idea. Robin Williams, Martin Lawrence and even Flip Wilson; these individuals. When we saw them on TV – and think about the amount of money that Madea has made cross-dressing!

The thing about this is that when you have a people who have been moved away from the Torah, in the Torah a man is never supposed to wear that which pertains to a woman. A woman is not supposed to wear that which pertains to a man. And yet you have Torah-observant individuals who not only watch this stuff and laugh at this stuff, but they pay and go to the movies and buy the DVDs and bring this stuff into their home. They laugh at it with their children.

While you are sitting there laughing and being entertained by these – you see, it’s “not” an abomination if it’s funny. It’s just “humor.” But the fact of the matter is that you have individuals that are doing that which the Bible says is an abomination.

The sensitivity training we’ve endured through TV; you have individuals who watched Will and Grace, the Ellen Show or Modern Family. There is a program out called “The New Normal.” You have Glee, etc. There are all of these programs that are presenting that agenda and the world sits and watches.

Movies and TV programs have desensitized many into accepting the perverted lifestyle of the LGBTQ community as “normal.” The agenda is really to get God to “accept” the LGBTQ community as “legitimate.” That’s the whole goal, so here is the process.

I used myself because I’m the only one who’s probably not going to get offended by me using myself, versus using someone else [as a model], but here’s the deal. If I decide that I no longer want to be called “Arthur” but that I want to change my sex so I’m no longer a man, I am now a “woman,” and here is what I have to do. I have to change my name. If you’ve known me as “Arthur” and I’ve changed my name to “Arthurene” or something like that, and you call me Arthur, I’m going to tell you not to call me “Arthur” any more.

And if you keep calling me “Arthur,” guess what? I might really get upset with you. Now, one of two things is going to happen. You are going to have to accept the name change and thus by accepting the name change you accept the change itself. Now you’ve just validated my perversion.

The next thing is that you have to change the look. Arthur can no longer dress like a man if he wants to be a “woman.” He has to start dressing like a woman.

Arthur now has to invest in surgeries. I have to change my facial appearance. I have to change some body parts. You have to add some body parts. Arthur has to start wearing woman’s clothing. Now Arthur needs everyone around him to accept Arthur (me) for what he has become. I need my parents to accept me. Well, what if my parents don’t? You see, it’s going to cause a breach. If my parents don’t accept my perversion, then what I’m going to do is I’m going to push and push and push. I’m going to bring my boyfriend to meet my mom and my dad if they are still alive.

I’m going to want my brothers and sisters – if you love me and you want me to be happy, then you’re going to have to accept my perverted lifestyle and welcome it. If I don’t feel “comfortable,” I’m going to let you know that I don’t feel comfortable with the way you are treating me. I’m no different than any other person out there. I’m still your son...wait a minute. Am I still your son? No! You’re not my son anymore! Remember? Ooo. You’ve become a “woman.” Now, this is hard because there are people out there forcing that agenda on parents, on siblings and on their loved ones.

Then the next move is going toward the government. You see, when that community establishes a coalition, they get lobbyists just like everybody else. They send them to Washington to lobby the Senators and lobby the Representatives and to push that agenda and get a buy-in by supporting their political aspirations. They contribute to their pacts and contribute to their political offices when they are running for office through their campaign.

One of the things that Donald Trump said – I’m going to tell you something. The man came out and just called it what it is. He says that when these individuals and these super pacts are giving millions and millions of dollars to these super pacts, everybody that is giving something is expecting something in return – when you run for politics and you receive the funds.

And only when people are exposed – some people got exposed because they’ve been receiving money from the Klan. They’ve been receiving money from organizations that are considered to be “hate” groups. They were fine receiving that money until it was exposed that they had received the money. Now they want to publicly give it back or donate it to their favorite charity.

You see, when people support you, they have a tendency to have an agenda. Now I have to get the government to pass regulations or laws to recognize my perversion and to give benefits to my perversion. Once that happens, now I have to get the community. So we’re going to start some groups. We’re going to get into the schools. We’re going to get into the middle schools and the high schools and start our clubs. We’re going to have our college clubs. We’re going to have our sororities and our fraternities.

We’re going to get the government to identify “hate” crimes and civil rights and all of these kinds of things. It’s been happening. Once I get the government to accept me and the community to accept me, now I have to get my church. I love “God” just like you all, with my perverted self.

I need to be validated. I need to be accepted for what I’ve become. I need you to validate my perversion in order for me to feel good about myself. As long as you reject me, then I’m coming after you with a vengeance. I’m going to push this and anyone who rejects my perversion is going to pay.

Now, if you do reject it, you better do it quietly over in the corner somewhere. Don’t you let it slip! Don’t you publicly say! If you publicly speak out against my perversion, then I and all of my perverted friends are coming after you. The goal is to stop businesses from supporting you. It is to stop people from doing business with you. It is to protest in front of your organization. I am going to do everything that I can to force my agenda on you or force you out of town or out of business or into the closet. So the gays have come out of the closet and want to force the straights into the closet.

The world is not going to have a problem accepting that perversion because the world has already gone opposite of God. The ultimate acceptance must come from the church; the people who “represent” God in order to be validated by God. This is why the attack of the church – it’s going to hit a lot harder than it has. It doesn’t really have to in some assemblies, because they’ve already rolled over.

Now this is what someone last night (and it was all over the news today), called “courage.” (Arthur shows picture of Bruce Jenner). Bruce Jenner. Now he wants you to know him as “Caitlyn.” Bruce will always be Bruce.

Mainstream media sponsors boycotts. This is what ESPN says. “One man [double amputee soldier] traded two legs for the freedom of the other to trade two balls for two boobs.” Guess which man made the cover of Vanity Fair? He was praised for his “courage” by President Obama and is to be “honored” with the Arthur Ashe courage award!

Some people are already calling Bruce “Caitlyn.” I’ve heard conversations:

“Ah man, don’t she look good!”

He! “She” is not a she! “She” is a he and will always be a he! I’m going to tell you something, ladies and gentlemen. Google “transgenders” on Google and you’ll be surprised. As a matter of fact earlier this year, or late last year there was one transgender who actually was in Miss USA [beauty contest]. I mean they were really in the running! You have a person who has gone through so much cosmetic surgery to transform to [the point] where this person who is a man who wants to look like a woman, is competing with other women!

The Presbyterian Church has recognized same-sex marriage. That is the Presbyterian Church USA. The Evangelical Lutheran Church of America allows same-sex couples to get married; but leaves it up to individual ministers of congregations to decide, according to a 2009 resolution.

The Episcopal Church established a rite of blessing for same-sex couples in 2012 and prohibited discrimination against transgendered people. It has welcomed gay people since 1976. The United Church of Christ has allowed same-sex couples to get married since 2005.

The Unitarian Universalist Association has a long-standing and deeply held commitment to support full equality for bisexual, gay, lesbian and transgender people; going back 33 years to 1970. These are churches, ladies and gentlemen – houses of worship, houses of God.

Reform and Reconstructionist Judaism – in 1984, the Reconstructionist Rabbinical College became the first rabbinical seminary to accept openly gay and lesbian students and to endorse their ordination as rabbis.

In 1993 the Reconstructionist movement also decided to sanction religious marriage for same-sex couples. In 2000, the Central Conference of American Rabbis made the recognition of officiation for same-gender marriages the “norm” for Reform Judaism.

Lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender (LGBT) rights in Israel is the most advanced in the Middle East and one of the most advanced [agendas] in Asia. Same-sex sexual activity was legalized in 1988 in Israel; although the former law against buggery had not been enforced since a court decision of 1963.

Buggery is: the criminal offense of anal or oral copulation by penetration of the male organ into the anus or mouth of another person of either sex, or copulation between members of either sex with an animal.

This is a total violation of Torah. One of the reasons why I am putting this out here is because I know that some of you – I’m going to tell you something, parents. You have parents who want to cover the ears of their children and you want to move them instead of having conversations.

You have to understand that YeHoVaH intended for every person to hear the reading of the Torah. The Torah speaks openly. You cannot teach your children Torah without teaching them about what I am sharing with you right here. So you can usher them off into the back room if you like; like some church preachers.

“Well, now we’re going to get into some conversation that may not be suitable for small children.”

Well, if you are a minister, everything in the Bible should be suitable for small children. It’s the parents’ responsibility to teach them. Instead, parents are shipping their children off to school and letting them teach them about things that should be taught at home. If you are not teaching your children that these things are wrong, then what compass do they have when they go out there and begin to investigate and experiment, because it is already happening?

Buggery is historically referred to as a “crime against nature.” It is an offense under both common law and statutes. Although prosecution for buggery is rare, the punishment upon conviction can be a fine, imprisonment or both. The term is often used interchangeably with sodomy. Sodomy comes from where? Sodom and Gomorrah. That term “sodomy” came from Sodom.

Israel became the first in Asia to recognize unregistered cohabitation between same-sex couples; making it the only country in Asia to recognize any same-sex union thus far. Just last month they had one of the largest LGBTQ parades in the world in Tel Aviv. Although same-sex marriages are not performed in the country, Israel recognizes same-sex marriages performed elsewhere; making it the first and only country in Asia to do so.

Discrimination on the grounds of sexual orientation was prohibited in 1992. Same-sex couples are allowed to jointly adopt after a court decision in 2008; while previously allowing stepchild adoptions and limited co-guardianship rights for non-biological parents.

Gays and lesbians are also allowed to serve openly in the military. In the military – establishments of more than thirty countries including U.S. allies such as Israel, Canada and the United Kingdom, gays and lesbians are allowed to openly serve in their country’s military.

Now you have people who want to predict doom and gloom on America because the Supreme Court and the President and all of these passed a law for same-sex marriage. You need to take that same mindset and put it on all of these thirty countries if you really believe that.

Long before this was going on in the United States (openly), it was going on in these other countries; namely the so-called “apple” of God’s eye [Israel].

Countries where same-sex marriages are legal:

1. The Netherlands

The first legal gay marriage in the world took place in Amsterdam in the Netherlands on April 1, 2001.

2. Belgium

Belgium legalized gay marriage shortly after the Netherlands in 2003.

3 and 4. Spain and Canada

The first same-sex couple married in Spain in 2005. National legislation was passed in Canada to allow for same-sex marriage in 2005.

5. South Africa

South Africa was the first African country to legalize gay marriage in 2006.

6 and 7. Norway and Sweden

Norway and Sweden legalized gay marriage three years later in 2009.

8, 9, 10. Portugal, Iceland and Argentina

In the following year (2010), three more countries legalized gay marriage: Portugal, Iceland and Argentina. Argentina became the first Latin American country in the world to legalize gay marriage.

11. Denmark finally past the post

Same-sex marriage became legal in Denmark in June 2012. This law was passed 23 years after their civil partnership act in 1989.

12 and 13. Uruguay and New Zealand

The second Latin American country to legalize gay marriage was Uruguay. This happened in April 2013. The marriage equality law was approved by the Senate twenty-three votes to eight.

The second country to legalize gay marriage in 2013 was New Zealand. The bill passed with a wide majority. Seventy votes in favor and forty-four against. New Zealand was the first country in the Asia Pacific region to legalize gay marriage.

14. France

France's upper house of parliament voted to legalize gay marriage in April 2013. They approved the bill with small changes. The bill was passed in the lower house in May 2013. France was the fourteenth country to legalize same-sex marriage. Did you all know that all of these countries – you didn't know this, did you?

15. Brazil

Brazil also legalized same-sex marriage in 2013.

You see, this is what happens when we are closed-minded and have no idea of what is going on outside of our little world America. Do you know that America is one of the only nations on the planet where the people speak one language? That's how narrow-minded we are! In every other country out there, you will find that people speak multiple languages; even in places that people consider "uncivilized" have more language acumen than Americans! It makes you wonder, doesn't it?

16. The UK

In 2013 the UK government backed a bill to legalize gay marriage. Established churches of England and Wales are still banned from conducting same-sex marriage. Regardless, the first gay wedding took place one minute past midnight on Saturday, March 29, 2014.

17. Luxembourg

Luxembourg approved same-sex marriage in June 2014. And recently the Prime Minister of Luxembourg married his gay partner.

18. Ireland

Ireland was the first country in the world to approve same-sex marriage by a referendum. The referendum took place on May 22, 2015. This is just two months ago. All major political parties supported the change. It was approved by over one million voters (1,201,607 people or 62% of voters).

And do you know what is really ironic is that Ireland is one of the most Catholic countries on the planet? I mean it is one of the most religious countries. The wars they have there are between Catholics and Protestants. That's 62% of the voters.

19. The USA

So here we are as the nineteenth. Some people think that we're the world leader. But when it comes down to certain things, there are people in the world around us. We're number nineteen when it comes down to this particular issue. And because it happened here in America:

"Oh, this is the beginning of the end!"

Ladies and gentlemen, the “beginning of the end” started way back yonder. The US Supreme Court ruled on Friday, June 26, 2015 (just last month) that all Americans no matter their gender or sexual orientation, are legally allowed to marry. Let me tell you something. Now that America has finally got on [the bandwagon], there are other countries like we’re going to see here.

Recognition in other countries

There are same-sex marriages in other countries that can only be legally performed in some states or it is only recognized in some states. This is the case in Mexico where same-sex marriages are recognized by all states and the federal government, but same-sex marriages can only take place in Mexico City and Quintana Roo.

Israel recognizes same-sex marriages performed in other countries. Since June 2014, same-sex couples have been able to use British law to marry in Australia, but Australians in same-sex relationships can’t marry under Australian law. So a person who comes in who is British can get married, but an Australian can’t.

Same-sex civil unions are allowed in Malta. The first civil union in Malta took place in 2014. Then there is growing support for same-sex marriage. In Slovenia, a bill to legalize same-sex marriage has been pending since March 2015. A bill to legalize same-sex marriage in Finland was approved in 2014 and is due to take effect in 2017.

So with all of that history, with all of that information, we get to what does the Bible say about all of this? When you have the churches – we mentioned several of the churches, states and countries that have embraced this. It is only a matter of time before the churches take hold of this and run with it. Hillsong just came out in support, now that is one of the biggest singing groups out there. Yeah!

So you have individuals out there. There are major, major religious personalities that are going to push this agenda. Really what is pushing this agenda is money. When you begin to look at money, you can't help but go to the Mark. The Mark of the Beast is essential for what? Buying and selling. Anybody who is against this agenda is going to be hit and to feel it economically.

When a star or a personality; a football personality, a baseball personality or a basketball personality – you just saw how endorsements can be taken away; where a person in their right mind unfortunately under the influence of something says something and then the media swoops down on it. Now they are forced to apologize. They are forced to apologize. If they don't apologize, they are going to lose endorsements. They are going to lose accounts.

Again, Donald Trump. He said some stuff and he refused to apologize because he doesn't need anybody's money. And look at what has happened. Macy's and all of these other places have dumped Trump. There is a "dump Trump" movement. Listen, I don't agree with Donald Trump, so don't put me in that category.

But what I am saying is that Trump, because he has money and he doesn't need other people's money, he can say what he wants to say. He can stand by regardless of who comes out against him. They can't do a whole lot of damage to a man who has a whole lot more money than he will ever spend in a lifetime. They can't hurt him economically, but a lot of these other people can be hurt big time.

Paul's Teaching in Romans 1:22-32

The key part of this teaching is going to be in I Corinthians but right now I want to hit Romans. Romans 1:22-23. This is what it says:

Ro 1:22-23 – "Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools,<sup>23</sup> And changed the magnificence of the uncorruptible Elohim into an image made like a corruptible man, and to birds, and four-footed beasts, and creeping things.”

Paul is saying that there are individuals out there who tried to imagine what YeHoVaH would be, therefore they created this idol. This obviously goes against:

“You shall not make graven images.”

But it hasn't stopped people from doing it. Verse 24:

Ro 1:24 – “Wherefore Elohim also gave them up to uncleanness through the lusts of their own hearts, to dishonour their own bodies between themselves:”

I want you to look at this language and then I want you to go home and look up some of these words in your Concordance. I just want to make you aware of them. For those of you who are joining us, this is homework for you. Here is what we are going to have to deal with. All of us are going to have to deal with this at some point, and hopefully we won't, but our children have to deal with this. Our children are in environments where they are exposed. They are going to have to grow up in this.

We're going to have to teach how do I respect and treat people with dignity when I don't respect their lifestyle. How do you work with a transgendered person? How do you work and live? I'm contemplating all of this.

Like having neighbors right next door who are same-sex couples and then they are having their parties with other same-sex couples next door to you. If it hasn't happened, there is a good chance that in the next fifteen or twenty years that it will happen if Yeshua tarries. We're going to have to learn how to live Godly in an ungodly society.

That used to be easy when people confessed America to be a Christian nation. It used to be easy when everybody was Christian. It used to be easy when everybody in the community had some of the same values you had. And so, verse 25:

Ro 1:25 – “Who changed the truth of Elohim into a lie, and worshipped and served the creature more than the Creator, who is blessed forever! Amen.”

Ro 1:26 – “For this cause Elohim gave them up unto vile affections: for even their women did change the natural use into that which is against nature:”

There is a website out there where the headings are:

“Five reasons why the church should embrace homosexuality.”

I will tell you, the agenda is out there ladies and gentlemen. Five reasons, and they bring up these scriptures, but they are using the Webster’s dictionary to define words! And when it gets down to Leviticus:

“Well, anybody who would go to Leviticus for anything should tell you that they are not moral and they are not a Christian!”

You see, what the Christian Church has done is that it has rejected the laws. You’ve thrown all of that out. So now the homosexuals come along and say to the Christians, who try to tell them that they are wrong:

“Well, guess what Mr. Reverend? You are using verses from the Old Testament and the Bible tells you that eating shrimp is wrong! The Bible tells you that you should be honoring the Sabbath, but you’re not. The Bible says that if you don’t do this or you don't do that, you should be put to death. So how can you use the same Bible against us that you yourself don't keep?"

Oh, it's a valid point! When you throw away the commandments, you throw away the argument; which is why I'm using the New Testament first. You see, they would expect this.

They would use Romans and this word "natural." This is the word phusikos. This word is used several other times in the New Testament, but there are three different words for the word phusikos. One of them is psuchikos. It is similar. It looks like it, but it is a totally different word. It deals with a totally different "natural," like a natural mind. It is not this natural, where one is "produced by nature, inborn, agreeable to nature."

When YeHoVaH made animals after its kind, there is a reason why animals only mate with their kind. That is because it is natural. Do you understand? You don't see zebras out there mating with wildebeests. They don't even hang out in the same community. All of the animals that are created hang out in herds. It is lions with lions, bears with bears, tigers with tigers, elephants with elephants and giraffes and giraffes. Every kind hangs out with its kind.

When they produce, they produce after their kind. That's natural. It is natural for a man and a woman. It is not natural for a woman and a woman. They can't produce anything. A man and a man can't produce anything. There is no production in two men and two women. That's unnatural.

So in order for them to fulfill their perverted desire to be a family, they have to adopt. And a compassion world says:

"Well, that's wonderful! The homosexuals and the lesbians can adopt all of the children that are in foster care. They need parents too!”

That’s a cry of compassion that logically makes sense in an illogical world; which makes it illogical and against nature. Now you have a child who says:

“I’ve got two daddies.”

“Well I’ve got two mommies.”

And they’re confused.

Ro 1:26 – “For this cause Elohim gave them up unto vile affections: for even their women did change the natural use into that which is against nature:”

Ro 1:26 – “And likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another; men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompence of their error which was fit.”

So here’s the argument from the homosexual and the lesbian perspective. They say that when you begin to look at this particular verse, that it means men having relations with men that they are not “married” to. So marriage “changes” the equation. If a man can legally marry another man, then they are now legally joined together in the sight of God; especially if they can get a minister in the “House of God” to join them together.

They are looking at this thing just like the natural world. When you and I look at a man having a relationship with a woman who is not married, what do we call that? Fornication. That’s wrong. So when a man has relationships with another man and they’re not married, that’s “wrong.” But if the man and woman get married, then sex is now okay. If the man and man get married; if the woman and woman get married, then it is now “okay.” Do you see that perversion?

That’s why this push for same-sex marriage has been so vehement. They could always have a sexual relationship, but it was wrong in the sight of God. Now that they get “married,” their marriage is “just like” yours. Do you get it?

Ro 1:28 – “And even as they did not like to retain Elohim in their knowledge, Elohim gave them over to a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not fit;”

I encourage you to look that up.

Ro 1:29-31 – “Being filled with all unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, debate, deceit, malignity; whisperers, <sup>30</sup>Backbiters, haters of YeHoVaH, despiteful, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents. <sup>31</sup>Without understanding, covenant breakers, without natural affection, implacable, unmerciful:”

Now that word “natural” is a different word than the “natural” in verse number 26 and verse number 27. It’s the same word “natural,” but it’s a different Greek word. Look it up. 1 Corinthians 6:9-10. It says in verse 9:

1 Cor 6:9 – “Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of YeHoVaH? Be not deceived: neither fornicators,”

That word is the word  pornos  or some would say  porneo  from where we get the words “porn” and “pornography.”

“...fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate,”

That word “effeminate” is  malakos  or “soft, soft to the touch.” It gives the idea of a young male set aside for an older male.

“...nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind,”

That is the key right there; abusers of themselves with mankind. I encourage you to look that up in the Strong’s. What you are going to find is that this word “abusers of themselves with mankind” is the word  arsenokoites . Here is what it means: “one who lies with a male as with a female, sodomite, a homosexual.” The King James says abusers of themselves with mankind. Do you see that in  I Corinthians 6:9 ?

I Cor 6:10 – “Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of YeHoVaH.”

So these people are not going to be in the Kingdom. And again that word effeminate is  malakos . It means “soft, soft to the touch; a boy kept for homosexual relations with a man; of a male who submits his body to unnatural lewdness; a male prostitute.”

These are the words that Paul uses. But when we look at them; especially with all of these different [Bible] versions, you can read it in a version where you can’t even research the word. A person who is reading this in the Common English Bible will read it. They are at the mercy of the translators. They can’t research it, so they are going to take it at face value.

Or if they see a word, they are going to go where? To the Webster's. They can't go to the Strong's or to any legitimate Bible research tool to look up that word in the Hebrew or the Greek. They are left with a Webster's version of an English word.

Now for us Torah observant people, what I've just given you is the New Testament for anyone who wants to argue. I specifically started in the New Testament first because I know that there are people who were expecting me to go straight to the Torah, and here I am.

Lev 18:22 – “Thou shalt not lie with mankind, as with womankind: it is abomination.”

For the people who want to argue in the New Testament that God is the same yesterday, today and forever – or Jesus Christ [is]; and that God doesn't change, Father has obviously not only made pork which was unclean, clean. Now He is saying that it is okay for a man to sleep with another man. Something is wrong with that!

He didn't say that. These so-called preachers are saying this. You have these individuals. They've got the idea that the only thing we need to know about God is that God is love and that we should love God and love our neighbors. And as long as we are loving everybody, then we're fulfilling the entire Law. The questions are:

“How do you love God?”

“How do you love your neighbor as you love yourself in accordance to His word?”

That is really the issue. Otherwise you begin to make it up and all that matters is “love.” I say to people:

“How do you define love?”

If you have a wife that you “love,” and you say you love me, then the question is:

“Do you love me like you love your wife?”

If you love me like you love your wife, then you shouldn’t have any problems doing with me what you would do with your wife. Do you see how “love” can take on [different meanings]?

“Well that’s not what it means!”

“Well, what does it mean? Please explain it to me.”

When you start throwing “love” out there and there is no defining of it, I’m going to tell you right now. I don’t love you like I love my wife! And I don’t love you like I love God! If I loved you like I love Him, I worship Him because I love Him. Am I now going to worship you because I love you?

We’re going to have to put “love” in its proper place in order to understand it. Therefore when He says:

“Love me and love your neighbor as you love yourself.”

Then I need to look to He who is commanding me, to understand what He means.

Lev 18:22 – “Thou shalt not lie with mankind, as with womankind: it is abomination.”

Some people would say it like this:

“You shouldn’t sleep with a man like you would sleep with a woman.”

Lev 18:23 – “Neither shalt thou lie with any beast to defile thyself therewith: neither shall any woman stand before a beast to lie down thereto: it is confusion.”

I’m going to tell you something. There are people out there who have no problem with bestiality; none. They don’t even think anything about it. But let’s look at Leviticus chapter 20. Father takes this thing to a whole other level in Leviticus 20. He says:

Lev 20:13 – “If a man also lie with mankind, as he lieth with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination: they shall surely be...”

What?

“...put to death; their blood shall be upon them.”

In other words what He is saying is that if you are emblazened enough to violate My command that I have associated the death penalty to; the blood is not on the people who put you to death. Your blood is on you!

Now here is the challenge that we have. You and I cannot put anybody to death. We would be considered a murderer. No one can put anyone to death without a trial. What the Muslims have done is try to establish Sharia in communities so that they don’t have to take people to the courts. They can try them under Sharia law and issue a sentence and that sentence is binding; even if that sentence is the death penalty on U.S. soil.

Some similar Sharia (but it’s not called Sharia) takes place in Brooklyn. You have the Hassidic community who does not take other Hassidics to a secular court. They have (within their own system) their own form of Sharia. You won’t see a Hassidim in front of a judge.

Lev 20:14 – “And if a man take a wife and her mother, it is wickedness: they shall be burnt with fire, both he and they; that there be no wickedness among you.”

Lev 20:15 – “And if a man lie with a beast, he shall surely be put to death: and ye shall slay the beast.”

Lev 20:16 – “And if a woman approach unto any beast, and lie down thereto, thou shalt kill the woman, and the beast: they shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon them.”

Lev 20:17 – “And if a man shall take his sister, his father’s...”

Well, I’ve gone far enough. Here is what Father is saying. He is saying:

“Listen. When you go down that path, you’ve just perverted everything.”

Now an animal knows that a human being is not supposed to be engaging in that kind of relationship with it. When that happens to that animal, that animal is now confused and guess what? If that occurs to that animal consistently, that animal is now going to be looking to have sexual relationships with humans because of what has been committed against it. Father says:

“Kill it.”

That is because once you go there you can’t undo it as it relates to an animal. So how do we deal with this in our own lives? I can’t kill homosexuals. I can’t kill lesbians.

There is another method and it has nothing to do with killing as much as it has to do with cutting off. You see, we’re either going to waddle in it, revel in it, or we’re going to come out from among it. That’s really our only option until the ultimate judge judges it. I've already judged it. He's already given me the judgment concerning that.

What if I have a brother or a sister? I'll tell you right now. I believe from my own observations – I have a niece and nephew. As a matter of fact, my brother's daughter; one of my brother's daughters is "married" to another woman. And it is like, do you know what? I love her and I'm praying. I want Father to deliver her from that. But in the meantime I can't have that relationship. It's wrong. You know it's wrong! And do you know what? She feels uncomfortable around me. I feel uncomfortable around her and that is the way it is supposed to be!

The moment that the "uncomfortableness" lifts, if I have embraced that, I've just gone against YeHoVaH and His word. That which deserves death, I've now accepted. I'm validating it. I'm saying it's okay, and I represent Him. Do you understand this ladies and gentlemen?

We have to live with it! We have to respond to it. What should our response be to wrong? Some of us know that the Bible tells us that if there be a fornicator who calls himself a brother, that we are not even supposed to eat with him. Do you know that? We are not supposed to be having fellowship with people who are in violation of YeHoVaH's word.

The moment that you cross that line is the moment that you pervert a relationship. That confusion is in the midst of it. This is what is going to happen. You are going to want to say something, but you are not going to want to offend, so you are going to keep your mouth shut. You're not going to be able to fully embrace it because to fully embrace it, you're going to have to abandon Him. There's going to be this tug of war in your heart and in your spirit because you know that you're wrong.

I have another niece that I was told was in a relationship with a woman and who has since come out. I have a great-niece that is in a relationship with another woman. And when I come around, they don't come around. It is not that I'm mean or hostile against it. It is that I don't agree with it. I think it is wrong and I think you should be ashamed of yourself. Who wants to be around people who say:

“You ought to be ashamed of yourself!?”

I can't compromise who I am to validate you; especially if I believe that what you are doing is wrong. That is because the moment that I embrace what I believe to be wrong, now I'm sinning against myself. I'm violating my own principles. I'm violating my own belief systems. I've just compromised. How far am I going to allow this compromise to take me? The next thing you know, we're going on vacation and attending weddings and receptions.

“Don't judge brother!”

Right! Oh, you judge! You have to judge! If you don't judge, you are going to find yourself being on the wrong side of the Bible.

So our response should be – if could change these letters, here is what I would call it: Living Biblically, Godly Transformation Quest. That's a long phrase, but that is what I would call it. Living Biblically, changing LGBTQ to something that literally – and this is what should happen to these folks.

We need to be able to lovingly speak the truth. We are not out there bashing people. We are not out there “hating on” people. We are not out there calling people out of their names. We are not throwing rocks at folks. We are not doing any of that. Truly I believe that YeHoVaH loves them. I believe that YeHoVaH loves gays and transgenders and lesbians and bisexuals and queers. I believe Yeshua died for them. And that means that I should love them too.

Now, I don't love the lifestyle. It is just as I would love my sons. My sons – I do not accept living that is opposed to scripture. I don't endorse shacking. I don't endorse fornication; whether it is my son, my daughter or my grandson. But the bottom line is that either you are going to stand for what you believe, or you are not going to stand for what you believe. The moment that you start compromising is the moment that you begin to lose your way.

That's the message that I wanted to try to communicate here today. The reason again is because it is breathing down our neck right now. It is everywhere. It is all around us. This community – for those of you who may not know it, there is a reason why Charlotte is called the “Queen City.” There is a large population of perversion in Charlotte, Atlanta, Chicago and New York. It is all over the place, ladies and gentlemen. If it is not in your neighborhood...

I'm in the grocery store and seeing two men shopping together and two women shopping together. I am looking at how they are interacting with one another and it is heartbreaking. And looking at eighty-year old lesbians – I mean, eighty-year couples are cute; seeing eighty and ninety-year old husbands and wives walking and holding hands and that. Eighty-year old lesbians aren't cute. It's grotesque! Eighty-year old homosexuals! It has got to the point that society is calling what is good “evil,” and what is evil “good.” That's where we are folks.
