What Does It Mean To Be A Man Of God

Introduction

When we come into the Body of Messiah, we have to understand that the Father has laid out in His Word how we are to relate to one another. What is interesting about the Torah is that YeHoVaH has given us His Instructions. He is given us the Way, the code, the Instructions on how we are to conduct ourselves as representatives of the Almighty.

I was just talking to my son trying to help my son understand, along with my family members and others, that I, as a man, did not know how to be a man until I began to read and study the Torah.

I knew how to be a worldly man. I knew how to be a Christian man. In the Christian church, they do not tell you how to be a man of God or a godly man, you kind of figure that stuff out as you go and you watch the men in the church.

Unfortunately for me, unlike many of you, I had a lot of bad examples. I had cheating deacons, lying elders and preachers who were into all kinds of stuff. I had to make a decision: Was that the kind of man I wanted to be? And I remember reflecting.

This is why I got a message for us today that is going to deal with the entire family because this is what we are really about. We are about dealing with everybody and everything, and there's nothing that we should be hiding or should be ashamed of, which is why I try to be as transparent as I possibly can with people because I know the façade. I know the fakeness of religion.

I know how people can carry a big, nice, shiny Bible but be full of dead men's bones. I know how people can talk, write, and speak holy and look like their life is in order, when behind the scenes it is just a mess. I know how pastors can stand in the pulpit and preach powerful messages, but then at home their life stinks. No respect from their wives. No respect from their children, and vice versa.

So, I know how that can be and I know how church can paint a picture, and how the religious community can paint a picture for people to look at that particular picture, when the fact of the matter is that the picture that people see is not what it is behind the scenes. How many of you know we know how to be good fakes? So, this is not about being a fake.

Christian Godly Men

When I was in the Christian church, I learned how to be a Christian man from other Christian men, not from the Bible. The Bible told me to love my wife like Christ loved the church. How many of you heard that one? Well, how do you do that?

They never told me how to love my wife like Christ loved the church, the only thing was,

“Be willing to die for her? What does that mean?”

Does that mean if somebody breaks into my house, I get between her and the gun that is about to shoot my wife and put my life on the line for her? Is that what that means? Does it mean that I have to be willing to die to myself? It was never explained.

How many of you ever had that explained to you in the church? How is a husband supposed to love his wife like Christ loved the church? How is a woman, a wife, supposed to submit to her husband as unto the Lord? Now, we have all been told how we are supposed to do that,

“You are supposed to submit. I am the head of the house.”

We throw those words around like there is some magical, mystical, spiritual power that is going to cause somebody to transform into that godly wife or that godly husband.

The New Testament does not tell us how to live. It does not tell us how we are to conduct our lives on a daily basis; it just tells us that we are to live holy. That we are to be holy.

What does that mean? How does that look?

When I did the teaching, A Spirit-Filled Life: What Walking in the Spirit Looks Like, I gave examples from the Bible showing how people are to conduct themselves and how they are to live their lives on a daily basis.

Many of us, including myself, knew how to live a Christian life on Sunday during the Sunday service. I knew how to live on Sunday because I was looking around and watching how other people were living. I was in the church trying to figure out how to carry my Bible.

“Well, you know, the really pious people carry their Bible like this.” [Arthur puts the Bible under his arm.]

“Right?”

I am coming in there from the military. You put your books in the back of your pants. You walk up there like a grunt or a sailor or whatever the case may be, with your Bible in the back of your pants, but that is not how religious people, pious people, carry their Bibles.

We learned a lot of stuff from what we saw other people do, right? But when it came down to being a man of God, I did not have it in my home, and if you do not have that model in your home then you are not going to know, so you have to look around as to how you are going to do that.

My dad taught me, “Man does what he pleases; woman does what you tell her”. That is how I grew up. It almost cost me my marriage, but I believed that because that is what my father taught me.

Living Holy

Now, here I am trying to live holy.

“Well, how do you live holy?”

You see, every one of us has to figure this out on our own if we are New Testament-only Believers.

But how many of you know the Torah tells you how to live holy? How many of you know the Torah tells you how to love your wife?

- The Torah teaches you how to be a man.
- The Torah teaches you how you are to conduct yourselves in a community.
- The Torah teaches you how you are to treat your neighbor.
- The Torah teaches you how you are to approach the Almighty.

You will never learn these things from the Gospel of Matthew to the Book of Revelation. I know I did not and I am preaching. I am a minister. I am a pastor. I am ordained. Are you following what I am saying? And I am still trying to figure this thing out.

You go home ...

“How am I supposed to treat my wife? How am I supposed to treat my children?”

“I don’t know.”

The Bible says, “Do not provoke your children.”

“How do I keep from provoking my children unto wrath?”

“Well, what does that mean? How do I not do it?”

“Don’t touch the unclean thing.”

“What is an unclean thing? How do I know not to touch it?”

All the time not only I am touching the unclean stuff, but I am also putting it in my body. I am putting it on my body. I am living in the midst of it with people who are just as defiled and unclean as I am, and I do not have a clue. Talking about:

2 Corinthians 6:17 “Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you.”

What that meant for me was to stop going to the bar. That is what it meant to me. You know, do not be going to the dope house. Do not be hanging out with people who do not believe like you believe.

So, you hang out with other Christians and you come to find out that Christians are just as devious. As a matter of fact folks, in the church, I lost a lot of respect for Christians.

As a Christian, you would think that if you are dealing with a Christian businessman that you are going to get paid when you do your work. You think that if you are dealing with a Christian person, they are not going to try to screw you. Not going to try to take advantage of you. Not going to try to get you to do something for nothing. That they have just scales and balances; just weights and measures.

“Just weights and measures? What is that?”

You follow what I am saying?

I knew Christian businessmen who were conniving, who would scheme, and who would do lousy work and cut corners. It got to the point to where if somebody said,

“Well, I am a Christian.”

I almost wanted to get away from them. I would rather do business with a sinner because at least I know what I am dealing with.

“Brother, that is kind of cruel.”

“I am just telling you how it is.”

So how do you love your wife? I did not learn how to love my wife until I started studying the Torah and the Torah taught me something. Can I tell you the most valuable lesson that I have learned that has done more for me in loving my wife than anything I have ever read, studied, or tried to live?

The thing that taught me the most about loving my wife was the Law of Niddah. It taught me respect. It taught me honor. It taught me separation and space because for seven to eight days I am not supposed to touch her.

“How will you do that?” For seven or eight days, I am to separate from her while we are in close proximity. I have to pass her and not touch her. That is discipline. I have to look at her and smile at her, but I cannot touch her. This is the Torah teaching me. The Torah teaches me.

It created a whole level of thinking that I had never thought before because now I have to be aware of what I sit on, what I lay on, what I touch. It created this barrier between her and me, that during that time she was separated unto YeHoVaH and separated from me. For that time, my wife was the daughter of YeHoVaH.

For that period of time, I learned discipline, but it also taught me a deeper love and desire to be with her, and I could hardly wait until that eight-day period had passed. That is how I learned respect for my wife.

From the Torah, teaching my children, because by teaching my children these things, I am teaching them how to honor, love, and respect their wives long before they ever get married simply through practice. Someone might say,

“That’s antiquated.”

“Well, yeah. That is why you got your wife in bondage. That is why you got your thumb on her.”

Most men cannot honor or respect their wives because, first of all, they cannot see them as equal, as an equal partner. This is what the church taught me. The church taught me how to suppress my wife. It taught me how to hold her down, how to put her under my thumb, how to control her. That is what religion does; it teaches you how to control. And you do not stop there, you start trying to control everything around you. That is the spirit of witchcraft. It is a controlling, conniving, manipulative spirit that comes straight from the pit of Hell and YeHoVaH has nothing to do with that.

Through His Torah, He is trying to teach us, first of all, how to honor Him. I certainly cannot come into His presence and treat my wife any kind of way. Peter is talking from the Torah, when he said,

1 Peter 3:7 “Husbands, do not deal harshly with your wife or your prayers will be hindered.”

How many Christian men, how many supposedly Torah-observant, supposedly Messianic, supposedly Hebrew Roots are trying to control and manipulate their spouse and wonder why they cannot get a prayer through.

I am preaching already, so do not try to stop me because we need deliverance. We need to be healed.

You Brothers, and you Sisters, listen to me because I am trying to share something with you that I think will add a whole new dimension of spirituality in your home. If you believe that the mate the Father has blessed you with is from the Father, then her role in your life is to help you. That is a role. That means she brings something to the table.

The beauty of this is that the whole burden, like the church wants to teach us, of the household being on the man is not true. The burden of that household is on the shoulder of that husband and wife whom YeHoVaH said are to be one. That is what it is. When you become one, you share. That is what you do. That means that you are not the only brain in the house. There are two brains.

Get this,

Matthew 18:19 "...If two of you shall agree on earth as touching any thing that they shall ask, it shall be done for them of my Father which is in heaven."

I believe that Scripture has a lot to do with husbands and wives, the two becoming one. You understand what I am saying? And if you do not know how to become one with your spouse, with your mate, you become one by yourself. Let that sink in. It is called divorce. There are so many divorced people because they do not understand the Bible.

Back in 1990, George Barna stated, in a research report that divorce in the church, the House of God, began to exceed divorce in the world. So, you have people who are supposed to have the Word of God in their hand, who carry it religiously under their shoulder like pious people, but do not apply what is being taught in the Book.

When I began to listen to what my wife had to say, she said things that hurt my feelings. She said things that I did not like. She said things that made me angry, but she loved me. It reminds me of YeHoVaH, who loves His people so much so that He will say to them what they need to hear and it is not pleasant when it comes.

I am talking to some wives who are thinking about how to get out of their marriage. I am talking to some husbands who are so oppressive that they do not even realize that their wife is scheming and that one day they are going to come home and she is going to be gone. All the signs are there.

If you do not know or learn how to treat your mate, like your mate, understanding first and foremost that she is the daughter of the Most High ... According to the writer of Proverbs, Proverb 18:22 "Whoso findeth a wife findeth a good thing, and obtaineth favour of the LORD".

My wife got a hold of that verse. She reminds me whenever I get out of line where my favor comes from. You want to talk about favor? Let me tell you something, the favor comes through that wife because she is going to teach you how to be a man, how to be a husband.

"Well, my wife can't teach me anything."

"That is your problem."

She cannot teach you anything. Yet, you say she was given to you by YeHoVaH. Well, if He gave her to you, He is trying to teach you something through her. And if she cannot teach you anything then you are going to miss it, and you will be on to the next one. Then, to the next one. If you do not learn your lesson, you are going to grow up to be a single, old man. Alone.

BIBLE COMMENTARIES

Genesis Commentary: Volume 1 (Hardcover)

Arthur Bailey explores the Book of Genesis in a verse-by-verse Commentary from the perspective of the Hebrew Roots of the Christian faith. Understanding the Book of Genesis is foundational to the understanding of the rest of the Bible. Arthur provides unique insights into the Word of YeHoVaH (God), the life of Yeshua (Jesus), and mankind's historical response to the Word. Volume 1 of the Book of Genesis starts with the creation and ends with the Curse of Canaan.

Malachi (Hardcover)

Malachi was a contemporary of Nehemiah and he wrote to the Israelites who were allowed to return to Israel from the Babylonian captivity under the Decree of Cyrus. The Priesthood had become corrupt. The people became discouraged and rebelled against the Law of YeHoVaH. Malachi was written to encourage the people that YeHoVaH would return to them when they returned to Him and to warn the Priests and the people of the dangers or curses they faced if they did not return to YeHoVaH. Malachi also announces the coming of John the Baptist and the coming of Messiah Yeshua.

Galatians (Regular Print) Commentary Complete 4 Volume Set

The true Gospel of the Kingdom is not only one of belief, but of right action and of obedience. The good news is that religious doctrines and manmade traditions have absolutely nothing to do with salvation. Understanding Paul's epistle to the Galatians is the first step toward right understanding of the narrow path that Believers are called to walk. The next step is yours to take. Are you ready?

Epistles of 1st, 2nd, 3rd John and Jude (Hardcover)

EPISTLES OF JOHN

The Gospel of John; 1st, 2nd and 3rd John; and Revelation are all attributed to the Apostle John, the son of Zebedee, who was one of Yeshua's inner circle.

1st John - An Epistle of John

John's focus is to validate Yeshua as The Messiah; to define and expose sin; to promote a righteous lifestyle; to warn against false teachings and falling away; and to embrace and demonstrate YeHoVaH's LOVE.

2nd John - An Epistle of John

John is writing this letter to a beloved Saint and her children; he addresses her as the elect lady. He warns her by telling her that if you hear a person speaking and they do not bring the teachings of Messiah Yeshua, do not receive them. John further states that if you greet them, receive them in your home, or bid them god speed, you become a partaker in their evil deeds.

3rd John - An Epistle of John

John writes this letter to encourage Gaius to continue to help those whom he sent and to stand even though Diotrephes, a leader in the congregation, wanted to have the preeminence, or to be first, and refused to accept those sent by John as missionaries.

JUDE

Jude was combating false teachings and false teachers who appeared to be teaching a type of "once saved always saved" doctrine and that nothing you could do would cause you to lose your salvation. Thus, grace gave you a license to live however you chose to and nothing you did could change your salvation status.

How to Overcome the Devil

After the fall of man, the serpent in the garden, known as the dragon, the devil, and also known as the prince of this world, exercised dominion and power over fallen man. YeHoVaH's plan for the restoration of man was put into effect and revealed at the baptism of Yeshua. It's NOT Finished

For centuries Christian leaders have been declaring how "It is finished!" while promoting the "gospel of Jesus" and the "finished work of the cross." Did Yeshua ever reveal what He meant when He cried, "It is finished!"? You may be surprised to learn what "it" is; that Yeshua is still ministering today; and that he also has ministry yet to come. Indeed "it" is far from finished.

Maximizing Your Talents

Messianic 101: The Essentials

In this very important teaching, Arthur Bailey explains what every new Believer must know to live a power-filled life in the Kingdom of YeHoVaH. You will learn who you are in Messiah, the importance of faith, and about the baptism of the Holy Spirit. You will also learn how to properly respond to the Sabbath argument, as well as the basics concerning the dietary laws, the Feast days, and much more.

Messianic 301: Perfecting Your Faith - Maturing in Messiah

Today there is as much confusion about being Messianic as there is on certain issues across denominational Christianity. This is the third installment of this phenomenal series which deals with perfecting the faith that we have been given. The series provides essential tools for maturing your faith in Messiah Yeshua.

Now Concerning Spiritual Gifts

Some suggest that the gifts of the Spirit have ceased operation and that the Law is done away with. Among those who accept and teach that the Spiritual Gifts of the Bible are still operational today, many have abused and misused these gifts in their assembly similar to the days of Corinth to whom Paul wrote to correct. This Book removes the mystery over manifesting spiritual gifts and it empowers Believers to identify and exercise their spiritual gifts.

Offended & Offending: Dealing With Offence

Some offences are carried over a lifetime and others tear apart relationships.

In the natural world, offences can create wounds that are slow to heal. Even when an apology is given, some people continue to be offended. Why do we become offended? What does the Bible say about offence? It is never too late to walk in your Kingdom authority free from offences! Be who you are meant to be today.

Pulling Down Strongholds (Hardcover)

Spiritual warfare is to walk in the power and authority of the Spirit of YeHoVaH. The weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through Elohim and have the capacity to pull down strongholds. This teaching addresses the strongholds in our life that need to be dealt with and pulled down. Where is it pulled down from? Our minds!

It requires serious discipline to operate and walk in Kingdom wisdom and in Kingdom understanding which requires each of us to confront ourselves. This is a Book to read and apply!

The Evolution of the American Gospel

Did you know that today's "Christian" gospel is not the Gospel of the Biblical Messiah's day? Over time, at the hands of men, the Gospel of the Kingdom (which is about repentance, obedience to the Commandments and acceptance of the Savior's sacrifice) has evolved into a gospel that is barely recognizable to Messiah, His Apostles or to true Believers of the faith once delivered to the Saints. Follow The Evolution of the American Gospel along a remarkable trail across languages, cultures, and centuries to reveal the true message of Messiah Yeshua (Jesus) and the path to salvation that is very different and far more powerful than what we have been taught to "believe."

The Fruit of the Spirit (Paperback)

Arthur Bailey does a verse by verse study of this passage from Paul's letter to the Galatians. The main tenets of this study is that God, who is Spirit, gave man the Law to govern his natural, flesh, carnal nature and God gave man His Spirit to lead man by His Spirit. As people of the Kingdom, we must be led by the Holy Spirit. The person who is led by the Spirit of God/Elohim will produce the fruit of the Spirit, do the works of the Spirit, and operate in the gifts of the Spirit. You will know the man by his fruit.

The Lord's Supper, The Last Supper, Communion (Hardcover)

Where did the model of a cup of juice and wafer come from? Did the Disciples/Apostles celebrate communion as we know it? The Lord's Supper, the Last Supper, and Communion as we know it today was adopted by the Protestant church and inherited from the Catholic Church during the "Great Reformation". What is the proper way to celebrate Yeshua's Last Supper with His Disciples as He instructed?

Trumpets, Traditions and the Babylonian Effect (Hardcover)

During the Babylonian captivity, the Jews were influenced by Babylonian worship just as when they were in Egypt they adopted the worship of the Egyptians. Babylon especially influenced the Jews so much so that the most religious document in Jewish life is titled the "Babylonian Talmud". In this teaching, Arthur points out the man-made traditions and the various effects Babylon had on modern day Judaism and the importance of exalting the Word of YeHoVaH over the traditions of men.

Understanding Grace (Hardcover)

Did you know that Yeshua never mentions the word Grace in the gospels or in the prophetic book of Revelation? The way the term grace has been used by those in Christian circles has given grace a bad name amongst Messianic and Hebrew Roots believers. Many Christians have used the doctrine of grace as a license to sin. However, when grace is used in the Biblical context it is truly a beautiful gift from YeHoVaH.

What About Grace?

Believers in Messiah misunderstand grace, salvation, and the Law. Messiah did not do away with the Law when he was crucified. Learn why we must keep the Law for the hope of salvation and the power of the Holy Spirit who still fills Believers. Absolutely relevant and must-read teaching for people of any faith!

Who Is Israel? (Hardcover)

The word Israel is used in many different contexts in Scripture. The word is used as the name of an individual, the name of a people, the name of a territory, the name of a united kingdom, the name of a divided kingdom and the name of the commonwealth. This Book reveals who is the real Israel today.

You Must Be Born Again

The church world took a conversation that Yeshua had with a Pharisee at night and built powerhouse ministries teaching a Gospel message of salvation and altar calls. But what does John 3:16 really teach within the context that it is written? Like many other Biblical passages, this much-quoted verse is preached in a manner that has become isolated from the context in which it was originally written.
